> [For the Louisville Demosrat.] Ratification Meeting.

At a large and respectable meeting of the people of Green county, held at the Courthonse in Greensburg, on the 21st day of January, 1861, David P. Moars was eatled to the chair, and Wm. B. Alien appointed

Mr. Mears, upon taking the chair, said. that no person who had acted in opposition to the party represented by the conventions held in Louleville on the 8th inet, or who is not prepared at this time to unite in good feith with it in all reasonable endeavors to erva the Union upon a just, constitulonal basis, le enthorized or expected to take part in our proceedings. He stated further that the conventions held at Louisville on the 8th of January had requested the people of Kentneky to assembla in public meetings, in their respective counadopted by those conventions as a true expression of their feelings and sentiments upon the momentous issues of the day; and that the object of this meeting was to have full expression of sentiment upon that Wherenpon, the secretary was requested to read the resolutions of the Louisvilla conventions, together with Mr. Crittenden's amendments; after the reading of which, David Montgomery, Keq., offered the following resolution, which was manioffered the mousi v adopted, viz:

Reselved, That we cordially indorse and satify the resolutions, including the Crittenden amendments, adopted at the Union enaventions haid at Louisvilla on the 8th and 9th last.

After which the convention adjourned. David T. Towles, being present, was oudly called for, and responded in a sensiappropriate and patriotic address, opplanded, after which the assembly dispersed in peace and harmony.

DAVID P. MKARS, President. crotary. A Correction.

MEASER HARNEY, HORRIS & Co.: Gentlemen: I see in your paper this mera patches to the Cincinnati Commercial, that I had written to Illinois a letter to the effoot that an compromise would stop the secesog out of the Union in three months. This is a mistake. I wrote a private letter to an acquaintance in Springfield, who asked my opinion; but I am not responsible for the rtions of any telegraphic correspondent of a Republican poper, and certainly would ot have authorized any publication salou lated to do injury at the present unfortunate

My opinion, as expressed, was, that the Republicans seemed to deny all compromises and that if something was not speadily done by em, the accession movement would include a thern States except, Delaware, Maryland and Kentucky; and that in such an event Kon tucky would must undoubtedly go with the South. I placed the limit of time la which these events would occur at three months. l'lease correct the statement.

On motion of Scott Newman, Mr. Hugh rwin was called to the Chair, and Mr. Robert P. Hamilton was chosen Secretary. On motion of Milton Curry, a committee on resolutions was appointed, who retired, and after consultation, reported the following resolutions:

WHEREAS. The citizens of the First and Second Wards, composing the First Legisla. tive District of the City of Louisville, have their sentiments in regard to the vote of their Legislative Rapresentative, adversely to holsting the stars and stripes over the Capitol at Frankfort, do hereby Resolve, 1. That the Union men of the First and Second Wards of the City of Lonisville, by this meeting, representing the centiments of a majority of the voters thereof, many of whom voted for Mr Croxton, thereby investing him with his office, do hereby condemn his vote in opposition to the hoisting of the National ensign ver the Capitol at Frankfort

2. That we consider Kentucky as etill a sovereign State of the United States; still a member of that glorious Confederacy beueathed to us by our fathers, and that wa ecognize the stare and stripes as the banner which every loyal Kentuckian will fight, in or out of the Union

That, in view of these considerations, vote of a representative in the Legislatura ageinst setting up the standard of Kentneky upon her Capitol, is a vote against the timent of Kentucky, and the vete of the Representative from the First and Second Wards is not only a wrong but an insult to the majority of his constituency.

4. That we are unfalteringly for the Union—the whole Union—if it can be preserved in honor, and secure the rights of the South by constitutional provisions which cannot be either mislaterpreted or avaded. 5. That we recognize in the amendment of the differences that distract our conntry, and that we respectfully request the Lagie ature of Kentneky to forward a memor to Congress expressing the voice of Ken-tncky upon this question, and that the Leg slature accept nothing less and demand nothing more than is expressed in the amendments to the Federal Constitution eferred to.

6. That, while we are for the Union and for exhausting every remedy to preserve it trom dissolution and devastation, our aympathies and our interests lie with our breth-ren of the South, and that we will not enbit to see coercion employed against them.
7. That we beseech our friends of the South to obstain from all overt acts of hoatility against the National Government until effort has been made to adjust the

our country.

8. That the Legislature has no constitutional right to call a convention of the people to consider the right or the necessity accession, believing that no rea necessity exists for such action at the distracting difficultles that now convulse

Washington, January 23 -The Conven-tion of five Eastern and Western lines of Railroad adjourned to meet in New York on the 20th of February next. A schedule of rates for freight, between all western and eastern points, was adopted, and restores the figures of the St. Nicholas Hotel and Saratoga meetings, with a slight variation in regard to the passengers. The let and 1 sections of the agreement then entered iato, making the fares uniform, and also dispensing with runners, were reaffirmed.

The fact was developed, in the course of the deliberations, that freight from the South and Southwest, with the exception of ootton, had greatly decreased, while the movement of produce from the Northwest and Centralwest, and north of the Ohlo river, was unusually large. All the roade report increased receipts over these of January, 1860; some of them very heavy, and as an instance, it was mentioned that the Baitimore and Ohio, the more southern of the five great lines, and the increase of which is less than the others. shows an enlargement in revenue on cast-ward freight of $25,000 for the first twentytwo days of the present month over same time last year. A general falling off was reported in passenger receipts, and Western boundfreights Much of the produce is for Europe. All the five lines are deriving much benefit and increased business from the diversion of the cotton of the Southwestern States, from the Gulf and Southern Atlantic ports. The convention included the leading railroad minde of Massachusetta, New New Jersey, l'ennsylvania, Ohio and Indiand An excellent feeling provailed and prospecte of East ward business were regarded as encouraging.
